

TEXAS PIPELINE ASSOCIATION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact:
Jeannine Wheeler
jwheeler@pureenergypr.com
(512) 517-6580

TPA ADDS NEW LEGISLATIVE DIRECTOR & GENERAL COUNSEL POSITION, WELCOMES JENNIFER COFFEE TO THE ROLE

AUSTIN, Texas [Nov. 16, 2020] – The Texas Pipeline Association (TPA) has welcomed Jennifer Coffee as its Legislative Director & General Counsel, which is a new role at the association. Coffee most recently was Legislative Director & General Counsel for Texas State Sen. Peter P. Flores. She is a graduate of Texas State University and received her J.D. from the South Texas College of Law. She is licensed to practice law in the state of Texas.

“We have many challenges ahead to ensure that Texas has the essential pipeline infrastructure it needs to deliver the essential hydrocarbons that fuel our lifestyles and economy,” said Thure Cannon, president of TPA. “Jennifer will be instrumental in advising TPA on legislation, developing policy positions and monitoring legislative activity. This is especially important as we lead up to the 87th Texas Legislative Session. We are thrilled to welcome Jennifer to our team.”

Prior to Sen. Flores’ office, Coffee was an Assistant General Counsel for the Texas A&M University System, Office of General Counsel; and served as a Legislative Aide and Policy Analyst for State Sens. Craig Estes and Chris Harris.

###

ABOUT TPA

Texas Pipeline Association (TPA), the largest state trade association in the country representing solely the interests of the intrastate pipeline network, is the primary resource for information regarding the Texas pipeline industry. TPA provides advocacy on issues related to pipeline safety, environmental regulations, taxation and legislation. Member companies and their representatives commit to conducting their business in accordance with integrity, honest communication, fair right-of-way acquisition, respectful construction and safe operations. Visit TPA at texaspipelines.com.